how to integrate youth into the planning process a nice way to get all types together, really enjoyed seeing teachers who are parents - interesting perspective, cheers, more nationwide trends and what we can learn/incorporate from that (N. Elsbree)
Budget
let teachers - talk and present more. New ideas. Awards for passionate. Love this. Thank you. Please do more. :)
It would be great to see some use of technology during sessions ie online survey, concurrent discussion group, ability to electronically send questions and/or comments tools of the mind curriculum - GATE testing early testing vs. later years
