

Policy Title: Certification of Learning Home School, Parochial School, and Other Non-Public School Requirements	Revised Date 9/13/11
	Policy Number 500.9

Home school credit will not be recognized to meet high school graduation requirements. However, a home school student may qualify for credit if s/he passes the end of course examination as per policy 604.3.

Parochial or other private non-public school credit will be accepted if the school is accredited by a recognized accrediting association. If not accredited as stipulated, a student may only earn credit by following the process as outlined for home school students.
