

TechnoTerms Quiz for Chapter 16

Name: _____

Directions: Fill in the blank with the TechnoTerm that best fits the sentence.

1. _____ is measured in cycles per second.
2. One cycle per second is called one _____.
3. In communication, _____ means things you can hear, and _____ means things you can see.
4. Some performers _____, or make up, the things they say.
5. People who perform in front of the camera are referred to as _____.
6. _____ is planning and rehearsal work done before a program is recorded or aired.
7. Special announcements made to benefit listeners or viewers are called _____.
8. AM stands for _____.
9. FM stands for _____.
10. When a radio program is suddenly interrupted by silence because of equipment problems, the silence is called _____.
11. _____ are electronic devices that detect silences and automatically trigger an audio source.
12. Editing done by planning the shots and taping them in order is called _____.
13. During _____, segments from two or more tapes are combined into a finished program by fast-forwarding or rewinding until the right segments are found.
14. Digital editing is called _____.
15. The text you see on a TV screen is created by a computer called a(n) _____.