

TechnoTerms Quiz for Chapter 9

Name: _____

Directions: Fill in the blank with the TechnoTerm that best fits the sentence.

1. _____ of measurement assure that everyone is using the same units.
2. Antonio's work called for _____, or extreme accuracy.
3. By _____, Keisha could make a drawing of her house smaller than it actually was but still in the correct proportions.
4. The meter and liter are commonly used units of the _____ system of measurement.
5. To _____ means to figure closely but not exactly.
6. Size information collected from many people is called _____.
7. Another term for "human engineering" is _____.
8. A condition of the wrist called _____ sometimes afflicts people who spend long hours at a keyboard.
9. _____ materials are those made by humans.
10. Plastics come in two types: _____ can be melted and remelted many times; _____ cannot.
11. _____ are created by combining different materials to obtain better properties.
12. Concrete has _____, so it resists being squashed.
13. Steel has _____, which means it resists being pulled apart.
14. If a material resists breakage after being bent back and forth many times, it has a lot of _____.
15. Engineers may use a(n) _____ to test how well a structure withstands wind currents.
16. Parts of the metric system make up the _____.