

The Blaine County School District Parent Information Center provides many resources and information to families with children who have learning differences including:

- One on One Consultation
- Family and Professional Resource Library Books
- District Special Education Information
- Parent Group Meetings
- Law/Regulation Information
- Outside Agency and Community Resources
- Meeting Support for Families and Staff
- Educational Team Collaboration
- Online Resources and Information

Blaine County School District
Parent Information Center

1060 Fox Acres Road
Suite 1012B
Hailey, ID 83333

Cell: (208) 720-4648
Office: (208) 578-5436
Fax: Please Call for Number

Website:

www.blaineschools.org/sites/specialedpic/

Email:

Kelly Choma

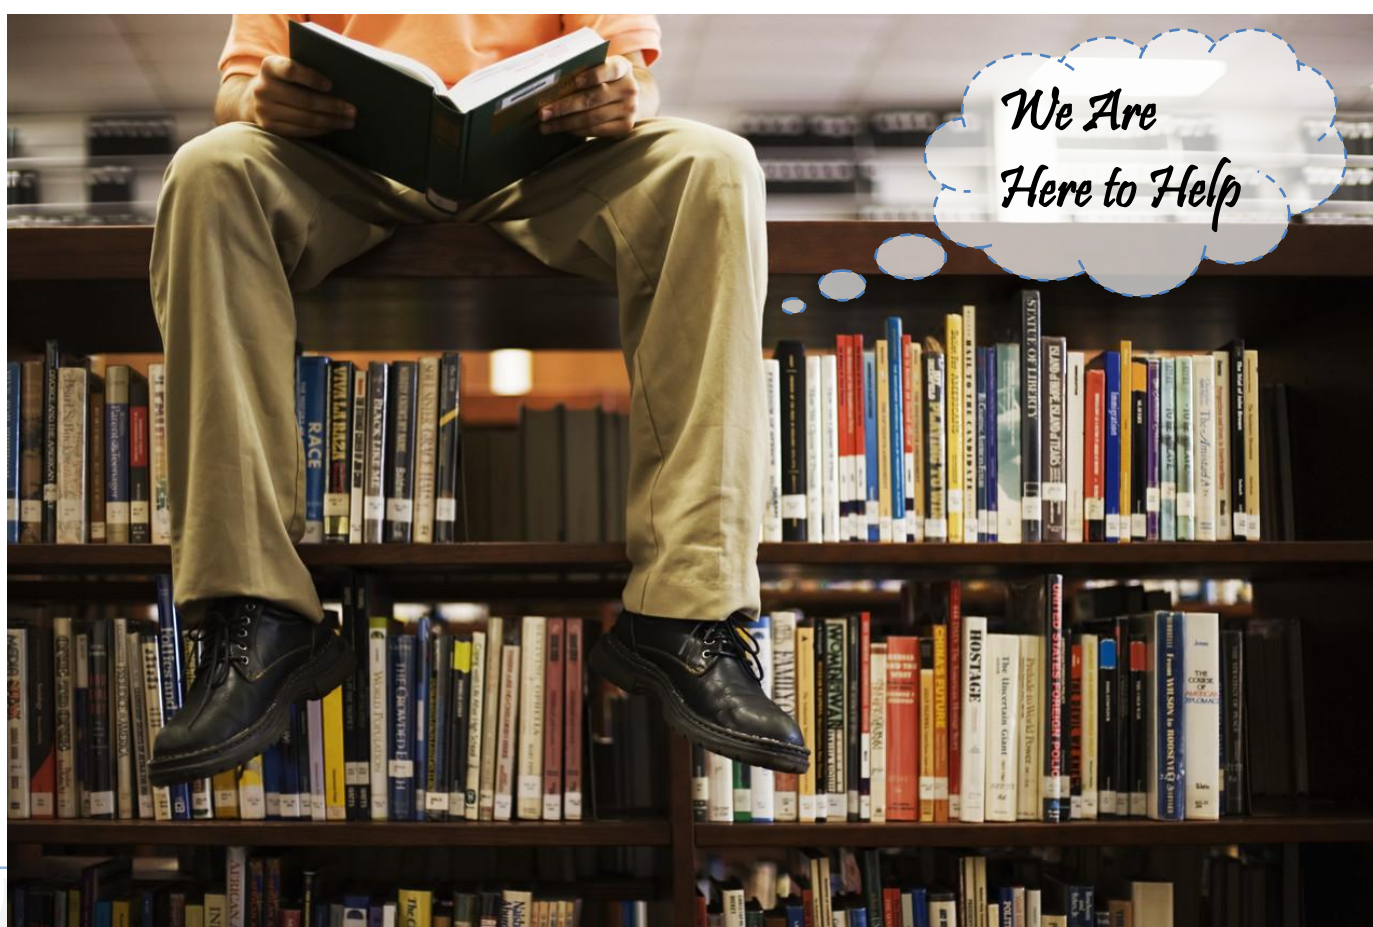

Parent Liaison

kchoma@blaineschools.org

Parent
Information
Center

We Are Here to Help

The Family and Professional Resource Library has a wide variety of books available for checkout including:

- ADHD, ADD, and Executive Functioning
- Anxiety
- Auditory Processing
- Autism
- Children's Books about Learning Differences
- College Resources
- Behavior
- Depression and Bipolar
- Developmental Delays and Cognitive Impairments
- English Language Learners
- Fine Motor
- General Child Development (birth and up)
- General Disability Information
- Gross Motor
- Hearing Impairments
- Learning Disabilities (Overview, Dyslexia, Dyscalculia, etc.)
- Medicaid and Katie Beckett Funding
- Physical Disabilities
- Section 504 Plans
- Sensory Disorders
- Social Skills
- Special Education Procedures (RTI, IEPs, Evaluations, etc.)
- Special Education Law
- Speech/Language Delays
- Transition
- Vision Impairments

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Q For whom is the Parent Information Center for?

A The Parent Information Center is a resource available for Blaine County School District families and staff.

Q How do I access services through the Parent Information Center?

A Very easily....you may call, email, or stop by the Parent Center.

Office hours are 8:00 AM-4:00 PM, during the school year. Please call to set up an appointment during the summer.

Q Who may I contact if I have questions about the Parent Information Center or its services?

A You may contact Kelly Choma, Parent Liaison, at the Parent Information Center. Please see the back of the brochure for more information.

Q Do you have a webpage?

A Yes. You may access our webpage at: www.blaineschools.org/sites/specialedpic/

Please visit our webpage to read about how Blaine County School District meets the needs of special learners, students with special needs, and students who receive special education services. At the webpage, you may also browse our online library catalog.