A PARENT SUPPORT GROUP FOR CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

Wednesday, January 4th
6:30 PM

312 South Main Street
Hailey, ID 83333

Join Children First Support Group for a two-part evening. Presenter, Tadd Mansfield, a senior at WRHS will be available to show and discuss his senior project, a presentation and documentary titled "Days with Marley". Tadd will be giving the same presentation at the Idaho Tools for Life Conference in March. The Tools for Life Conference is held for high school students with disabilities, and provides information and resources regarding transition to adulthood. Bring your Kleenex and be inspired by Tadd's work about a special girl named Marley, who despite having a disability faces each day with a smile.

The second part of the evening will allow families to share contact information regarding outstanding physicians, medical facilities, online tools, and other helpful resources. Please bring the names and contact information for any of the above that have been helpful to you and your family.

Please contact Tifny at 720.0955 with any questions
