

Blaine County School District

MEDIA RELEASE

On occasion, the newspaper, television or other media want to photograph or interview students concerning happenings in our classroom. Some of our students' exceptional work or photograph may also be displayed on a school website or school newsletter. Short notice makes it impossible to contact you for permission before pictures or interviews are taken.

We need to know at this time if you DO NOT wish for your students photograph or work to be used in a videotape or interview compiled by any District staff. If this paper is not signed and returned, then the District Staff has the permission to use photographs of your student for the purposes of illustrating positive learning situations and activities occurring in the Blaine County School District.

I _____, DO NOT give permission for my son/daughter
